Singular Family Mortality.

ELIZABETH, N. J., June 20.—Mabel Teal, an invalid daughter of Rev. Dr. John W. Teal, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church, died this morning, and a few minutes later her father expired. On Tuesday an elder daughter, Florence, died, and the family returned yesterday from her burial, which took place at Rhinebeck, N. J.

Dr. Teal had been in his usual health, and his sudden death is attributed to grief and exhaustion. He was 5 years old, and was one of the most prominent Presbyterian ministers in New Jersey.

Three Deaths in Wilson.

WILSON, N. C., June 30.—(Special.)—Yesterday our community was visited by the dread messenger, death. Mrs. Dr. Ed. Barnes, relict of Dr. Ed. Barnes, died very suddenly of heart failure. She had been almost an invalid for a number of years, but her death was a great surplise and shock to her friends.

Miss Salile Moore, daughter of our townsman, Mr. John R. Moore, was another victim. She had been almost an invalid for a number of years, but her death was a great surplise and shock to her friends.

Miss Salile Moore, daughter of our townsman, Mr. John R. Moore, was another victim. She had been sick several weeks with fever.
